LOW LEVELS FOR WHEAT
Flour Prices Also Take Drop.

Record Decrease Since Price of Grain Was Fixed by the Government.

Raw and Refined Sugar Also Show Decline on New York Market.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Wheat futures declined 10 to 15 cents a bushel today in the principal grain markets of the West, in some cases touching low levels not reached since the government established the war-time wheat price.

December deliveries closed in Chicago and St. Louis at $1.95 to $1.97 1/2 a bushel and at Kansas City even a lower level was reached at $1.91.

March options closed at Chicago, $1.91 to $1.91 1/2 and Kansas City, $1.87 1/2.

Declines in wheat were reflected in new flour quotations from Minneapolis, where declines of 40 cents a barrel since Friday were reported by two mills, bringing flour to $11.50 to $11.55 a barrel in quarter barrel sacks.

Export call appeared to be very slow, and domestic demand also was more or less at a standstill. In this connection, special notice was given to announcement that one of the largest flour mills in St. Louis has closed down on account of lack of orders from buyers.

Other grain shared the weakness of wheat. Corn values shrank more than 1 cent a bushel and oats about 2 cents.

Corn and oats likewise touched new low levels, equaling quotations of 1916 and 1917 for December options. December corn closed in Chicago at 33 1/2 and 34, compared with 35 1/2 and 36, and 17 1/2 and 18 in July, 1919. Cash corn at that time reached 21.

Oats established a new low record in both the December and May deliveries, closing at 15 cents and 16 cents on the Chicago board. In May of this year, May options went as high as 18 1/2.

Lack of export demand and free Canadian offerings are given as causes of the decline.

POLICE AND MOB BATTLE IN STATION.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 4.—Police reserves and city firemen were called to resist a mob of about one thousand persons which stormed a police station here tonight in effort to release four prisoners arrested during a clash between a crowd of white men and negroes. The trouble started near the station when a white man bumped into a negro, according to authorities. The negro's escort struck the white man, they said, and within a few minutes a crowd of whites and negroes were embroiled.

A few policemen rushed into the mob and arrested two negroes and two whites. They took their prisoners to the station, but the mob followed and tried to release the men. Riot calls were sounded and firemen from near by were called in to help the police. When the reserves arrived the mob was forced from the station by officers with clubs and revolvers.

Capt. and Mrs. John Tregelles.

Mrs. Tregelles, formerly popular on the English stage, charges her husband's affections were alienated here by Mrs. Amy Ernestine Shute, wife of a British army officer, and has sued Mrs. Shute for $100,000 damages.

WIFE OF WAR HERO SUES WRITER FOR HEART BALM

Charging that the love of her husband, Capt. John Tregelles, a British hero of Gallipoli, was stolen by Mrs. Amy Ernestine Shute of Hollywood club woman, scenario writer and wife of Capt. Cameron Shute of the British army, Mrs. Tregelles yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court, asking $100,000 damages from Mrs. Shute.

The action involves the members of an erstwhile colony of cultured English people in Hollywood. Indeed, it was stated last night by Mrs. Tregelles, who is living now in Pasadena, that it was while she and her husband had Capt. and Mrs. Shute as their guests at their house, 1729 Las Palmas avenue, Hollywood, that Mrs. Shute won the affections of Capt. Tregelles.

According to the allegation in Mrs. Tregelles' suit for alienation, Mrs. Shute, who is reputed to be a very wealthy, conspired with Capt. Tregelles to send his wife to New York and then lure him to La Jolla. Mrs. Tregelles asserts that the two still dwell in a "love cottage" by the sea cliffs at La Jolla.

"I understand," said Mrs. Tregelles, "that Mrs. Shute contends their association is quite innocent and that Capt. Tregelles is merely in her employ as a chauffeur and gardener. I cannot imagine Capt. Tregelles merely playing the role of chauffeur and gardener."

PROMISE SENSATION.

Mrs. Tregelles and her attorney, Benjamin C. Strang of Pasadena, promise some highly interesting testimony and documentary evidence when her suit goes to trial.

Carrying out a formality of the law, Capt. Shute is made a joint defendant with his wife in Mrs. Tregelles' suit, but the complaint specifies that no accusation is made against or damages sought from him.

Mrs. Shute, it is understood, has a large fortune and came to Los Angeles with her husband in order that she might write scenarios in the very capital of filmland.

WARTIME ROMANCE.

Capt. Tregelles is an ex-officer of the British army. He was terribly wounded at Gallipoli, invalided home and promoted for gallantry. In London, just after he left the hospital, he met Margaret Brubling, who was appearing on the London stage in one of Charles Frohman's companies. She was one of the most beautiful and charming actresses on the English stage. They fell in love and were married. That was four years ago.

Subsequently, they went to South America. Capt. Tregelles being unfit for further military service, they were seeking a business opening and a new home. They did not like South America, and so came to the United States. In Los Angeles a mutual friend introduced them to the Shutes.

Recently Mrs. Tregelles caused the arrest of her husband on a charge of desertion. An order was issued by the court compelling him to pay his wife $25 a week.

Mrs. Tregelles says her husband and Mrs. Shute conspired to send her to New York during the summer. It was while she was in New York that she met Mrs. Shute, who says Mrs. Tregelles, that Mrs. Shute ran away with Capt. Tregelles.

DANBURY (Conn.) Oct. 4.—America's entry into an association of nations which has been proposed by Senator Harding, the Republican nominee, as a substitute for the League of Nations as drawn at Versailles, was opposed here tonight by Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho.

Opening a four-day speaking tour in support of the candidacy of Senator Brandegee, another of the Republican "irreconcilable" opponents of the Versailles League, Senator Borah declared "the thing which made the United States powerful for good is its complete freedom and its unembarrassed right to throw its influence on the side of justice and peace in every great crisis of affairs."

"There is today in the world," said Senator Borah, "no influence for peace and civilization equal to the free and untrammelled America and the best citizenship of the country, regardless of party, will preserve that influence, uncompromised and untarnished."

"Our fight as a people unembarrassed by alliances, leagues or associations to determine for ourselves in every crisis and in the face of every confronting situation what it is our duty to do and what it is in the interest of humanity and of civilization to do, involves the whole question of self-government, the whole question of an independent, but still conscious, nation."

COX IN LEAGUE PLEA TO WOMEN

Tells Hearers Covenant Will Prevent Wars.

Praises Sex as Leaders in World Progress.

Gives Program of Social Service and Justice.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
DAYTON (O.) Oct. 4.—Home from a campaign tour that took him more than 11,000 miles, and into every State west of the Mississippi River except three, Gov. Cox, though supposed to rest for two days before going into Kentucky and Tennessee, today continued his plea for adoption of the League of Nations.

In an address to a body of women today, the Governor went into considerable detail why women should support the League cause, asserting that throughout the years they have been the leaders of progress in the world and declaring that wrath of the women who would pursue France, William Hohensolern and Nicholas Monastoff "through all eternity."

The League, Gov. Cox said, not only will prevent war, which he asserted is its primary purpose, but also will promote progress and will "set up, or itself become, a clearing house for international justice and social service."

Those who want to keep on dreaming of a "new heaven and a new earth" can perhaps afford to stay out of the League," the candidate said, "but those who really want to make their dreams come true and make this world a fit habitation for the human spirit, will want to join the League without delay."

The Governor detailed the following social service and justice program, which he asserted, member nations of the League will endeavor to carry out:

LEAGUE PROGRAM.
"To secure and maintain fair and humane conditions of labor for men, women and children—thus lifting the standard of living everywhere."

"To secure just treatment of the native inhabitants of territories under their control."

"To secure and maintain freedom of communication and of transit and equitable treatment for the commerce of members of the League."

"To secure and maintain the prohibition of the traffic in arms, in dangerous drugs and in women for immoral purposes."

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 4.—Search in Kern county was abandoned today for John Morgan, who escaped from the custody of Deputy Sheriff H. W. Deering of Phoenix at Tehachapi at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning, and Los Angeles officers have been asked to continue the search in that city, as Morgan is thought to have friends there.

When the train, on which Deering was taking Morgan to Phoenix from Richmond, stopped a few minutes at Tehachapi, Deering got off the train to get something to eat, after removing Morgan's clothes and leaving the latter handcuffed and in an upper berth.

When Deering returned, Morgan and his clothes had disappeared. Later in the day Morgan, fully dressed, approached two boys near Tehachapi and asked them to help him get the handcuffs off. They refused. Morgan escaped recently from the Arizona State Penitentiary.

NEW YORK MOST POPULOUS STATE

Outstrips All the Others in 1920 Census Race.

Texas is Expected to Retain its Rank of Fifth Place.

Idaho Passes New Mexico and Vermont, Say Figures.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—New York State, the most populous in the country, has a population of 10,344,141, an increase of 1,770,339, or 13.9 per cent over that of ten years ago. Populations of three other States also were announced today by the Census Bureau.

Texas has 4,461,021 inhabitants, an increase of 418,000, or 8.4 per cent over 1910. New Jersey with a population of 2,155,374 showed an increase of 218,000, or 10.1 per cent. Idaho, with a population of 431,826, increased 106,352, or 24.6 per cent.

SECOND LARGEST.
New York's growth was the second largest in its history but was $7,190 below that of the decade ending in 1910. Its percentage increase was next to the lowest of the States, with 12.9 per cent being shown for the decade ended with 1910.

Revised statistics for New York City's population, also announced today, show the city to have absorbed practically the three-fourths of the entire population of the State. The revised population of the city was announced as 4,609,648, an increase of 881,164, or 17.9 per cent. This was 1102 less than the population previously announced.

Texas is expected to retain its present rank of fifth most populous State, although its numerical growth was large, the rate showing its lowest relative increase. New Jersey, which ranked eleventh in 1910, passed Indiana and Georgia in the 1920 census rank. The State showed its second largest numerical growth on record.

IDAHOO GAINS.
Idaho passed New Mexico and Vermont in the 1920 rank of States. It showed its second greatest numerical growth, but its relative increase was the lowest in its history.

New York City (revised), 4,609,648; increase 881,164, or 17.9 per cent. The population as previously announced was 4,521,151.

Revised populations of the five boroughs of New York City were announced as follows: Manhattan, 2,344,194, decrease 47,439, or 2.0 per cent; Bronx, 732,016, increase 301,036, or 41.8 per cent; Brooklyn, 2,012,356, increase 344,005, or 17.1 per cent; Queens, 489,642, increase 185,999, or 38.1 per cent; Richmond, 116,531, increase 36,163, or 31.0 per cent.

One large mill's quotation was reduced today from $12.15 to $11.85 a barrel, while another made its price $11.20 a barrel. The low wheat market is responsible for the decline, millers say.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—New low record prices for the year were established in both the raw and refined sugar markets this morning. Prices were half a cent lower than at the close of last week, with raw sugar at 12 1/2 cents and refined at 13 1/2 cents a pound by the Federal Sugar Refining Company.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney diseases.

Noted General Visits Military Academy.

Gen. Bullard Greets Gen. Fayolle.

WEST POINT (N. Y.) Oct. 4.—[By the Associated Press.] With all the dignity that is West Point's, America's future army officers passed in review this afternoon before Gen. Marie Emile Fayolle, the distinguished French soldier who came to this country as France's representative to the American Legion convention. The trip was made up the Hudson in Secretary Baker's yacht.

Gen. Fayolle was greeted at West Point with a salute of seventeen guns. He was motionless and as solidly as the cadets while three battalions passed before him in review. Following the review, Gen. MacArthur, commandant of the Military Academy, escorted the French party on an inspection tour.

Gen. Fayolle was impressed with West Point, Gen. Fayolle said. "An army is only as good as its officers, and West Point speaks well for America. It is a fine thing that every man, no matter if he is assigned to the infantry, cavalry or artillery, goes through the same course of training. There is not a doubt that every man in West Point will make a fine officer. The training they get can make nothing more than great leaders."

LOW LEVELS FOR WHEAT.

dividual decline ever noted in the history of the local market, brokers said. Bid for hard winter wheat was down to $2 a bushel, Portland delivery.

DROP AT KANSAS CITY.
(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 4.—December wheat deliveries fell to $1.91 and March deliveries to $1.87 1/2, and closed at $1.91 and $1.84 1/2, respectively, on the local market today. The price was the lowest in three years.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 4.—The price of wheat for future delivery dropped 10 cents a bushel today, December closing at 1.95 1/2. It was the second time the price has fallen below the $2 mark since the government withdrew the minimum price guarantee.

FLORIDA PRICES LOWER.
(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 4.—Flour prices continued their downward trend when mills announced a reduction of 10 to 20 cents a barrel.

One large mill's quotation was reduced today from $12.15 to $11.85 a barrel, while another made its price $11.20 a barrel. The low wheat market is responsible for the decline, millers say.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—New low record prices for the year were established in both the raw and refined sugar markets this morning. Prices were half a cent lower than at the close of last week, with raw sugar at 12 1/2 cents and refined at 13 1/2 cents a pound by the Federal Sugar Refining Company.

Tombor Fell in France.
(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
CLERMONT-FERRAND (France) Oct. 4.—A French ship was hit this morning in the vicinity of Lorraine, department of Puy de Dome. The tremors lasted only a few seconds and no damage was reported.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney diseases.

CHALLENGE FOR THE PRESIDENT.

Republican National Committee Issues Statement.

Refusal to Abrogate Treaties is the Cause.

Must Obey Laws, but Not Judge Them, It Says.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The Republican National Committee, in a statement issued here tonight, challenges President Wilson's course in defying Congress and refusing to assent to that portion of the new shipping law directing him to abrogate sections of commercial treaties in conflict with the law.

Recognizing that the President has made the subject a political issue, the committee questions the President's reasons for his action. "Are not the real reasons," says the statement prepared for the committee by Edward N. Dingley, "that the President is fundamentally opposed to being directed by Congress, and fears that notice to these countries (nearly all of whom are members or prospective members of the League of Nations) might jeopardize the covenant and the League?"

FREE TRADE OBSESSION.
"It is obvious that the controlling motive behind the President's action, in his obsession of the doctrine of free trade and internationalism, has precipitated another controversy over the Republican doctrine of protection, and the Democratic doctrine of free trade."

The Republican doctrine of protection to American ships on the high seas and the Democratic doctrine of free trade and world-wide competition in the ocean-carrying trade."

Concerning the President's contention that Congress exceeded its powers in directing the abrogation of treaties, portions of treaties, the statement says:

"The President has taken an oath to execute the laws, and it is not only his duty, but his right, for him to decide whether a law is constitutional, legal or equitable. In this instance, he sets himself up as not only executive officer, but judge. It is entirely in harmony with his attitude in the treaty covenant and other matters."

WHERE POWER LIES.
"All authorities on constitutional law agree that the power to abrogate or modify treaties does not rest exclusively in the hands of the President and the Senate of the United States; but Congress in the exercise of its law-making and law-repealing power may render a treaty of no effect."

After quoting decisions in support of this contention, the statement continues: "The President has taken a serious step. If he can refuse to execute any law, can he not refuse to execute any law?"

"Foreign nations have discriminated against the shipping of the United States long enough. They have taxed our hands long enough. Republicans wish to remove this discrimination and make America free to meet the new problems."

MUST HAVE PROTECTION.
"Republicans insist that American ships shall be protected on the high seas and given a preference over all other shipping in the ocean carrying trade. That is the meaning of Section 24 and the abrogation of treaties will interfere with the carrying of that trade."

"The spirit of Americanism is aroused against the entire Democratic policy of free trade and internationalism; likewise against the many commercial treaties which have strangled American shipping in the carrying trade of the world, and in the long run does us more harm than good."

"Let the President sit on his throne and rest in his isolated dignity. Soon a President will occupy the White House whose thoughts and deeds will be in harmony with those of the fathers who built and preserved America first on sea as well as on land; is the motto of the Republican party."

PERFECTLY WILLING.
"This is the reason why Lloyd George is perfectly willing for us to come to some terms. This is the reason why Viscount Grey is willing for us to fix up our own method and gratify our own vanity as to the method of going in. For they understand, and have so declared, that once in the method of settling in is immaterial. Once there we must assume all the obligations and deal with all the situations which our presence there inevitably incurs."

"Witness some of the scenes at Versailles, such as the betrayal of China, the deal by which Saiton was battered away to an unfriendly power. America sat in the settlement and was silent. If not silent, then by reason of her association, powerless. That is the first time in all her history that she connived at the betrayal of a friendly people and broke every pledge, legal and moral, which a people could make."

"And that is the first time that the United States ever sat in on a European settlement."

German Will Fly Atlantic.
(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
LONDON, Oct. 3.—One of Germany's best-known airmen will attempt a trans-Atlantic flight about the middle of October, according to a dispatch to the London Times from Berlin.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY IS NAMED.

Governor Designates October 9 as Day to Guard Against Blazes in California.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
SACRAMENTO, Oct. 4.—Saturday, October 9, was named Fire Prevention Day in a proclamation by Gov. Stephens today.

After calling attention to great destruction of life and property wrought yearly by fire, the proclamation asks observance of Fire Prevention Day, "to the end that fire losses in this State may be appreciably reduced during the coming year."

"SAVE COX," THE SLOGAN

Desperation of Democrats is Shown by Wilson's Entry Into Campaign.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—President Wilson's entry into the campaign with the first of a series of public statements in defense of the League of Nations signifies the beginning of a desperate effort to save the covenant from defeat.

This move on the part of the White House is the result of negotiations between Secretary Tumulty and E. H. Moore of Ohio, who made two trips to Washington and discussed with those advisers of the President who are friendly to the Cox campaign the discouraging situation that confronts the Democratic leaders. Mr. Moore wanted to see the President, but failed to obtain an appointment and left Washington, explaining that Mr. Wilson was too ill to receive him.

IF COX IS ELECTED.
If Cox should be elected, now that the President has entered the fight with his trenchant pen, the result would be attributed largely, if not entirely, to Mr. Wilson's powerful aid, as a defender and interpreter of the covenant, it having been frequently remarked that none but the President himself could hope to carry the "great and solemn referendum" in favor of the League as he brought it back from Versailles.

Conversely, however, the election of Harding and the defeat of the covenant, now that the President has assumed the burden of its defense, would be interpreted as a repudiation of Mr. Wilson by the people more comprehensively than that he experienced in the election of 1912, when the country answered his appeal for the Democratic Congress with the election of a Republican House and Senate.

RAISED OLD QUESTIONS.
The President's assertion that "there is nothing in the covenant which in the least interferes with or impairs the right of Congress to declare war or not to declare war, according to its own independent judgment," again raises the question of why he refused to accept the Lodge reservation making this explicit. The reservation is that the reservation would destroy the moral obligation of the United States to accept the covenant under Article X.

When the Foreign Relations Committee questioned the President on August 15, 1919, Senator Knox asked whether in the event of external aggression on a member of the League that would be repelled only by force we would be under any legal obligations to participate.

WILSON'S REPLY.
"No, sir," replied the President, "but we would be under an absolutely compelling moral obligation."

Senator McCumber asked why a reservation should not be adopted making it clear "that Congress may use its own judgment as to what it will do and that its failure to follow the judgment of the Council will not be considered a breach of the agreement."

"I think it would be a very serious practical mistake," responded the President, "to put it in the resolution of ratification, but I do hope we are liberal and contemporaneous in our acceptance of the treaty, will interpret our moral obligations under that article."

"If there is nothing more than a moral obligation on the part of a member of the League, what avail articles X and XII?" asked Senator Harding.

"Why, Senator, it is surprising that that question should be asked," replied Mr. Wilson. "If we undertake an obligation we are bound to carry it out."

HARDING'S QUESTION.
Senator Harding asked what would happen if every member of the League should view the obligation as only a moral one, which it was not necessary to carry out.

"There is a national good con-

EDISON COMPANY INDICTED.

Brooklyn Concern is Accused of Profiteering in Coal.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The federal grand jury today returned a batch of indictments charging profiteering in connection with coal purchased for the Brooklyn Edison Company, Inc., for public utility purposes, but alleged to have been diverted and sold for export at a profit.

The conspiracy indictment charges the Edison Company, Wells and Wood Company, Walter F. Wells and Harry Wood with having unlawfully, willfully and knowingly conspired to violate a section of the Lever Act providing "for the national security and defense by encouraging production, conserving the supply and controlling the distribution of food products and fuel."

PROFITS DIVIDED.
The charges state specifically that the defendants entered into an agreement whereby the Edison Company would purchase coal from the Adelpia Company at excessive and unfair prices and would receive bonuses or commissions on such purchases. In purchasing from other dealers through the Adelpia Company the latter firm would receive the bonuses or commissions. Profits accruing from these transactions, together with the bonuses and commissions, it is charged, were divided equally among the defendants. It is charged that many competitors entered the bid and quoted prices substantially lower than those quoted by the Adelpia Company, but as there was no statement included to guarantee the payment of a bonus or commission in order to secure the coal, the lower bids were not accepted. Thus the true bill states, the Edison Company, Wells and Wood Company, Walter F. Wells and Harry Wood committed a violation of the law in that the Public Service Commission to which they were responsible under the State laws, was not able to determine just rates to be charged the public. Statements of fuel costs, upon which the rates are based by the commission, were furnished them by the Edison Company. The Lynch Company is alleged to have entered into contracts for the purchase of coal in Pennsylvania, Maryland and West Virginia, for which it obtained through the Edison Company priority transportation permits; but that the coal, upon reaching New York, was not delivered to the Edison Company, being used or sold by the Lynch Company for its own account. The hearing indictment charges that in July the Edison Company had contracts for coal that in excess of the reasonable requirements for eleven months. The indictment further charges that the company willfully secured $5,000 tons of coal and contracted with a dealer for an additional $5,000 tons. Denial of all charges was made by Matthew S. Sloan, president, and Mr. Wells, vice-president of the Brooklyn Edison Company. They said coal received from the Adelpia company was delivered under a 1914 contract.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—Argument on the action filed by Allyn, Gen. Fowler of Nevada, against the divorce of Mary Pickford Fairbanks, the motion-picture actress, from Owen Moore, has been set for Saturday, November 6 in the (Nev.) court, where the divorce was obtained. Gavin McNab, of counsel for Mrs. Fairbanks, announced here today that the hearing of the divorce originally had been set for next Saturday. Engagements entered into by the Attorney-General prevented the hearing on that date, however, and defense counsel consented to a postponement.

I.W.W. Round-up May Come from Tacoma Arrests.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
TACOMA, Oct. 4.—Police are working on the theory today that Charles H. Jones, alleged prominent I.W.W., may be implicated in a reign of terror plot in the Northwest. Jones was arrested Saturday night with Charles Halstrom. In the hotel room they occupied by dynamite caps, fuse, a short rifle, a secret I.W.W. codebook and letters from the I.W.W. in Chicago were found, the police said. The men are held in jail, where they refuse to explain why they had explosive materials, according to the police. The letters found on the men, police said today, may lead to a round-up of radicals in the Northwest. Jones was convicted of criminal syndicalism last year. He was said, and was out on $5000 bail pending an appeal to the State Supreme Court when arrested.

FRAUD ON VETERANS ALLEGED BY JURORS.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED IN CAPITAL AGAINST EIGHT DEFENDANTS.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Indictments against eight persons in connection with the alleged graft of thousands of dollars from World War veterans were returned here today by a Federal grand jury. The money was alleged to have been obtained from the soldiers in return for promised aid in obtaining settlement of war risks insurance claims. Daniel E. O'Keefe and Alphonse A. Young, both of New Britain, Ct., and six residents of this city, were the persons named in the indictments, which charged unlawful abstraction of government records, conspiracy to conspire an offense against the United States, and unlawful acceptance of fees by government employees.

CRANE LAID TO REST WITH SIMPLE SERVICE.

NO EULOGY IS SAID AND MUSIC IS ABSENT; HONORED BY TOWNSPEOPLE.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
DALTON (Mass.) Oct. 4.—A simplicity in keeping with his way of life marked the funeral today of W. Murray Crane, former United States Senator, former Governor of Massachusetts and millionaire manufacturer. The body in a flower-banked casket lay in the hall of the great house on the hill while neighbors, mill workers, leaders of industry, politicians and finance, and other friends, streamed past for a farewell view. There followed a service of scripture reading, hymn recital and prayer, after which church bells tolled, and the family, assembling in private in the village cemetery a short distance from the Crane estate, listened to the burial ritual. There was no hint of eulogy except possibly in the prayer, and no music of any kind. A throng largely made up of townspeople who hailed the Senator as a friend, filled the approaches to the residence and invaded the lawns. As many as could find room were admitted to the house for the funeral. As a mark of respect to the memory of Mr. Crane a holiday had been declared for most of the workers of Dalton and Pittsfield. Gov. Collings came across country in an automobile. The Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake conducted the service in conformity with a program arranged in part by Mr. Crane.

Escaped an Operation

There is nothing in the world a woman so much fears as a surgical operation. Often they are necessary, but often not; and many have been avoided by the timely use of that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you are suffering from some dread ailment peculiar to your sex, why not profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow?

These Two Women Saved from Operations.
Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells they would unfit me entirely for my housework. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was an organic ulcer and I would have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it again. I took five bottles of Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sensitive Wash and since then I have been a well woman, able to take care of my house and family without any trouble or a day's pain. I am ready and thankful to swear by your medicine any time. I am forty-four years old and have not had a day's illness of any kind for three years."
Mrs. H. KOENIG, 617 Ellis Blvd., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Sandusky, Ohio.—"After the birth of my baby I had organic trouble. My doctor said it was caused by too heavy lifting and I would have to have an operation. I would not consent to an operation and let it go for over a year, having my sister do my work for me as I was not able to walk. One day my aunt came to see me and told me about your medicine—said it cured her of the same thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sensitive Wash and they have cured me. Now I do my own housework, washing and ironing and sewing for my family and also do sewing for other people. I still take a bottle of Vegetable Compound every spring for a tonic. I recommend your medicine to others who have troubles similar to mine and you can use my letter if you wish."

The trial here, lasting several months, was picturesque and dramatic. The climax came on the final day when, as the United States District Attorney had completed his closing argument to the jury and adjournment was about to be taken, Ram Singh, a Hindu, rose from his seat among the defendants and shot and killed Ram Chandra, Hindu intellectual, editor and fellow-defendant. Singh, in turn, was shot and killed in the crowded courtroom by Marshal James B. Holahan.

The former representatives of the German Empire were brought to the Federal penitentiary in the summer of 1918. They were eligible for parole six months ago and appeared before the parole board at that time, but their paroles were not granted.

PAROLES FAVORED.
Recently the Minister of Switzerland in Washington took up their cases and orders were received to allow Von Schack and Bopp to come before a special meeting of the parole board two weeks ago. Prison officials said a new recommendation, favoring paroles, was forwarded to the Department of Justice.

Plans of the prisoners after their release are not definitely known, but it was said they would leave for California to conclude personal affairs.

It is believed both will return to Germany. Both were said to have made good prisoners, holding themselves aloof from the other inmates as much as possible. Bopp was a clerk in the clothing department and Van Schack a clerk in the storeroom.

Announcing A Reduction in Prices

List prices of the entire line of Paige Cars were reduced on September 28th. The new schedule follows:

"Glenbrook" (five-passenger 6-42) .....	$1770
"Ardmore" (4-passenger sport model 6-42) 1990
Sedan (five-passenger 6-42 chassis) .....	2645
Coupe (four-passenger 6-42 chassis) .....	2525
"Lenox" (three-passenger roadster 6-42 chassis) .....	1770
"Lakewood" (seven-passenger 6-66) .....	2795
"Larchmont" II, (four-passenger sport model 6-66) .....	2895
Sedan (seven-passenger 6-66) .....	3750

These price reductions range from $155 to $250 per model and all are based F. O. B. Detroit

At the outset we would like to emphasize the fact that there is no economic justification for the price reductions which we have quoted above. The cost of materials, expert workmanship and a fair, legitimate profit has always determined the price of our cars. The new schedule, therefore, represents not only a complete sacrifice of profit but a very substantial loss by this company.

We cheerfully make this sacrifice in the interests of a very worthy movement to decrease the excessively high costs of living which now prevail. In taking this action we do not pose as philanthropists or sentimentalist. We merely recognize the necessity for action—radical and sweeping—and we are ready to do our part.

HARDING HONORS HAYES'S MEMORY

Speaks at the Dedication of Soldier Memorial.

Marks Anniversary of Birth of Former President.

Senator Pays Tribute to World War Soldiers.

(ST. A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
FREMONT (O.) Oct. 4.—Taking a respite from his campaign, Senator Harding motored to Fremont today and delivered a nonpolitical address at the dedication of a soldier memorial at Hayes memorial library, situated in public park which is part of the old estate of Rutherford B. Hayes.

Before the exercises the nominee and his wife were guests of Webb C. Hayes, a son of the former President, and later they visited the latter's grave near by. A parade of Sandusky county veterans also was reviewed by the Senator in the program, which commemorated the anniversary of President Hayes's birth.

PRaises SOLDIERS.
In his speech, Senator Harding reviewed the historical associations of Sandusky county and praised President Hayes as one whose official service to America was more healing than heroic and left a sense of satisfying security and a heritage of America.

Paying tribute to the soldiers of the great war, he said that they, too, had wrought men in brilliancy, but here in glory, and called upon American citizens to demonstrate the same measure of devotion to duty.

"I voice today," he said, "a tribute to the steadfastness, the resolute, the undaunted courage, the irresistible determination of the American Expeditionary Forces. You World War veterans are the new leaven in the patriotic citizenship of the republic, the mightiest influence in American life for a half century to come."

SORROWING TRIBUTE.
"Yet do more even than is symbolized in memorial tablets and monuments. Let us pay our sorrowing tribute to the dead, our grateful tribute to the living and be resolved, all of us, to meet our duties as they meet theirs, undeterred and unafraid, and hand on to our sons and daughters the legacy of liberty and temple of security, our own U.S.A."

The name of Gov. Cox appeared beside that of Senator Harding on the program, but officials said he had cancelled the engagement to be present. Referring to the fact that arrangements for the ceremonies had been made before the national conventions, Senator Harding said that he had come because he believed in keeping contracts.

Tonight the Senator and Mrs. Harding returned to Marion by motor.

BRIDGEPORT (CT.) Oct. 4.—F. P. Christensen, Presidential candidate of the Farmer-Labor party, in an address tonight said the party would carry several States.

"I predict that we will take enough votes away from Daddy Harding to throw the election into the House of Representatives," he declared.

"At no time in this country has there been more actual danger to the republic than there is tonight, and so great a cause was ever put over by an old party."

"Our platform as it is framed means that never again will we be led into a war without being consulted upon it. Whenever we feel that some enemy intends to invade this country we will be there with muskets, but never again are they going to compel a war without a vote of the people."

WANTS REPARATION FIXED. FORTUNE LEFT TO CHARITY.

Germany Expects Allies to Settle Totals at Geneva Conference.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Oct. 4.—Germany will expect the Allies to keep the promise given at Spa that the total sum of reparations to be demanded of Germany shall be fixed at the Geneva conference this autumn, Gerhard von Muttius, head of the German financial delegation in Paris, informed the Associated Press today. To prepare the basis, he said, there probably would be direct but informal negotiations between French and German experts.

Neither the time nor place of the meeting, nor any of the details of such conversations regarding reparations, Herr von Muttius declared, had been determined upon. "Important measures" are to be taken to enforce the terms of the treaties with Germany and Austria and prevent a union between those nations, should the proposed Austrian plebiscite decided in favor of the project, according to the Foreign Office today. (The Austrian National Assembly on October 1 adopted unanimously a motion calling on the government to carry out within six weeks a plebiscite on the union of Austria with Germany.)

Meanwhile, it is understood no action will be taken with a view to preventing the holding of the plebiscite until views are exchanged between France, Great Britain and Italy to determine whether such a plebiscite comes under the band of the treaties.

Both Article LXXX of the Versailles Treaty and Article LXXXVIII of the St. Germain Treaty provide that Austria's "independence shall be inalienable except with the consent of the Council of the League of Nations," and Germany is obligated to respect Austria's boundaries as defined in the peace treaty. There has been no suggestion, it is pointed out, that the League of Nations would approve a union of Austria and Germany.

NOT UNEXPECTED.
[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
VIENNA, Oct. 4.—The hostile reaction of France to the proposed Austrian plebiscite on fusion with Germany, as reflected in Paris dispatches, was not unexpected here. The Austrian government has proceeded to have information that France was opposed to such a move.

Will of Jacob H. Schiff Includes Bequests Totaling $1,350,000.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Charitable bequests of approximately $1,350,000 were made by Jacob H. Schiff, banker and philanthropist, who died last week. His will, filed today, leaves the remainder of the estate to be shared equally by his son and daughter, Mortimer L. Schiff of Oyster Bay and Mrs. Frieda Warburg.

The widow was "amply provided for" outside the will, and in a separate document, provision also was made for Mr. Schiff's personal employees and the employees of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the banking firm of which he was the senior member.

NO APPRAISAL.
No appraisal of the actual value of the estate is possible at this time, it was said. In the petition filed with the will, only the legal requirement of "more than $10,000,000 in real and personal property" was mentioned.

One of the bequests was $25,000 to the Jewish Orphan asylum of Frankfurt-on-the-Main, Germany, Mr. Schiff's birthplace. This is to be added to a fund he created many years ago in memory of his parents.

The will was dated, Oct. 15, 1919. Charitable bequests of Mr. Schiff included $400,000 for the federation for the support of Jewish philanthropic societies of New York; $200,000 for the Montefiore Home; $100,000 for the Jewish Theological Society; and $100,000 for the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati.

New York University receives $50,000; Harvard College, $25,000; and Tuskegee Institute, $10,000.

ART RESEMBLED.
Metropolitan Museum of Art, $25,000; Henry Street settlement, $50,000; Solomon and Hetty Loeb Memorial Home for Convalescents, Westchester county, $25,000; New York Public Library, $25,000; New York Zoological Society, $25,000; delegates.

CHRISTIANITY WILL TRY FOR CONVERTS.

GREAT SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN TOKIO THIS MONTH.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

TOKIO, Oct. 4.—A spacious "foreign style" building erected on the vacant space opposite the big Tokyo Central Railroad station, a stone's throw from the Imperial palace, gives notice to the Orient that Christianity will make a concerted effort for converts through a Sunday-school convention to be held October 5 to 14.

Simultaneously, it is asserted, Buddhist leaders of Japan intend to promote the cause of Buddhism. They are planning a mass meeting to introduce to the visitors the history, principles and tenets of Buddhism.

More than 150 specialists in Sunday-school work will be speakers at the Christian convention.

An interesting feature is expected to be a great parade of the Sunday-school children of Tokio. Official Japanese, irrespective of creed, are showing great interest in the convention. A number of distinguished men of Japan have offered their residences to lodge the delegates.

The People and Their Daily Troubles

DOROTHY DIX TALKS

ARE YOU A GOOD WIFE?

BY DOROTHY DIX.

Do you ever wonder if you give satisfaction as a wife? When you see your husband of an evening with the smoke of his cigar curling about his head and a faraway look in his eyes do you ever wonder whether he is thinking that the best investment he ever made in his life was when he bought you a wedding ring, or if he is speculating upon what the fool killer was doing not to get his number on the day he undertook to be your meal ticket for life?

If you are curious on this subject apply these acid tests to yourself:

Have you thrown away the bait with which you caught your fish? You baited your hook with good looks. You were always so clean and fresh and dainty, with your hair combed so becomingly and your nose nicely powdered, and your feet and ankles so trim and neat. Have you grown sloppy and slovenly and dowdy? Do you screw your hair up into a little hard knot that would make admiring audience in her, and then the Venus de Milo look like a scarecrow on the beach who is the President of the Amalgamated Order of Lady Knockers.

Your husband's nose so completely out of joint that it has never got in again? So many women never think of their husbands as anything but their children's father, a convenience mercifully ordained by providence to supply the wants of Johnnie and Tommy, and Mary, and Janey. He has no rights where the youngsters are concerned, and if he has to be worked to death to indulge them in everything the greedy young hearts crave, well, it's a pity, but it has to be done.

Are you one of these all-mother wives? Do you let your husband sit up alone while you hold the baby's hand while it goes to sleep, until some other woman begins to hold his hand?

Are you merciless in squeezing money out of him for the children? Do you let him see that he is no real account in the family, and that your first thought is for them, not him? There are not many men so humble, and with so little self-love, that they enjoy knowing that they are nothing but the cash register in their homes.

Are you a good housekeeper? No matter whether you have every other virtue under the sun, but are a poor cook, and keep a messy and untidy house, you are a failure as a wife. It's just as much a woman's business to be thrifty and economical and spend her husband's money wisely, as it is his business to make the money.

What sort of a dinner do you let your husband eat at night? Did it come out of paper bags, or is it the kind of a meal that a man thinks cheerfully of all the way home? Do you buy fancy that you cannot afford, or do you keep within your income? A man can't think many nice loving thoughts of a wife when he realizes that she has sold him into bondage to milliners and dress-makers, and that his whole life work goes to their enriching.

Are you a good sport? Have you got the courage to smile, and buck your husband up when things go

MAKING MORE MONEY.

Ambitious Woman Turns Fancy Doll Clothes Into Real Coin of the Realm

That's what they've been calling Mrs. Katherine A. Bauer, of Chicago, for some time past, for she—suppose we commence at the beginning.

Some sixteen years ago Mrs. Bauer was up against a financial blank wall. She needed money. Had to have it. And didn't know where to turn. For personal reasons, many of the avenues open to other women were closed to her. So she determined to blaze a new trail. No one had ever specialized in the making of doll clothes, but there was no reason why it shouldn't be done. Mrs. Bauer determined to make the effort, and she started in with one sewing machine and a few scraps of time, as designer, operator, finisher and presser.

She took my name in one hand and a few—well, two—dollars in the other, and plunged into the business. In the way Mrs. Bauer tells it, "I couldn't draw a straight line in these days, so I used to make the assistance of my friends in solving the intricacies of some of the patterns. But I caught on to the tricks of the trade. When I had made up a couple of dozen dresses I took them to one of the big stores and sold them. That was all there was to it—except that I received an additional order that fairly made my head swim."

There's no secret to my success at all unless you call attention to details and a careful watch over market conditions a secret—which it isn't. I made it a point to find out the styles in dress for the coming season and then made up a number of designs in dresses which would be most becoming to them. Some of these are most elaborate—some dress for a small doll has the French knot on it—and others are quite simple. But every one of them has that element of style which will win the girls' admiration. That, I think, is the reason that I've built up a business from a single hand-operated machine to one which utilizes sixty power machines and two electric cutters.

untidy house, you are a failure as a wife. It's just as much a woman's business to be thrifty and economical and spend her husband's money wisely, as it is his business to make the money.

What sort of a dinner do you let your husband eat at night? Did it come out of paper bags, or is it the kind of a meal that a man thinks cheerfully of all the way home? Do you buy fancy that you cannot afford, or do you keep within your income? A man can't think many nice loving thoughts of a wife when he realizes that she has sold him into bondage to milliners and dress-makers, and that his whole life work goes to their enriching.

Are you a good sport? Have you got the courage to smile, and buck your husband up when things go

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Favors the Japs.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 4.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The proposition to be voted upon at the coming election denying the Japanese the right to lease land in California, if passed, is liable to prove a boomerang. The presence of Japanese in Southern California has proven a benefit, rather than an injury to the country. They are natural gardeners and have been largely instrumental in making Los Angeles the largest vegetable market in the United States. They not only supply us with an abundance of the finest vegetables that are grown, but at a price within the reach of the poorest. Nor is this all. They are the backbone of the fresh vegetable shipping business that in recent years has reached enormous proportions and in money value is worth hundreds of thousands of dollars annually. It is perhaps not generally known that thousands of cars of lettuce and the finest grown in the country, are shipped from here during the winter and early spring months, and it is raised by the Japs. The shipping business in tomatoes, bunch stuff, such as fresh turnips, beets and carrots, is also big and they are all raised by the Japanese and Chinese. No small number of people have done more to build up Southern California than the Japanese. Our climate and cheap living have been the drawing cards that have attracted a large portion of the present political campaign. Harding sometimes states a fact in rather a humorous way, and there is little in Cor's speeches to indicate that he sees any room for humor on his part.

I recall the Presidential campaign of 1896. The Republican party then had its first national ticket in the field. Fremont and Dayton were the Republican nominees, while Buchanan and Breckinridge were the Democratic. There was much bright humor shown by Republican speakers and it frequently was directed so as to illuminate the differences in purpose between the two parties. Music, too, both instrumental and vocal, always had a prominent place at all the Republican meetings. I once heard seven brass bands play in concert, the Canton band, second only to the famous Marine Band of Washington, being one of them. The vocal music was, however, more popular, for it was often quite humorous. One song, expressive of the purposes of the party and candidates, had this refrain:

"While Buck and Brek, a yoke of cattle slow,
Are tugging at the Kansas load,
While, haw, haw, haw,
A cracking pair of ponies, boys,
We to the world will show,
The hardy mountaineer and the gallant Jersey blue."

The first three lines were sung rapidly. The humor of this is that "Buck and Brek" were favorite names given by farmers to a yoke of oxen, and that the Democratic candidates, ex-likes, were "tugging at the Kansas load." The Democratic party, especially the pro-slavery portion of it, had, indeed, tugged hard and long to make Kansas a slave State, but the meantime is reducing to a

Way back east in old New York I labored for fourteen years in a large company making woolen underwear, so an illustration with raw wool print. Before the war Northern wool sold on a basis of 88 cents to 89 cents; now it is holding for 11.46 to 11.47. Also, don't forget every 1000 suits at $18 per suit into this country, that were being made here, and that the meantime is reducing to a

When Science Entered Woman's Sphere

SINCE Science entered woman's sphere, our every-day at-home living has been almost revolutionized. In recent years, indeed, Science has become the modern servant in the house—the home-maker's ally in conquering the problems of her family's health and happiness. Electrical Science, for example, has contributed the vacuum cleaner, electric iron, washing machine and other household equipment which has relieved home-making of its toil.

Food Science has contributed even more to human happiness than has Mechanical Science. Since we have realized that health and happiness are closely related, Science has devoted its best efforts to furnishing wholesome, nourishing food that will properly equip the human system to withstand the demands of our strenuous modern life. As food prices have soared, too, Science has been called upon to furnish the greatest possible food value at the lowest cost.

Our Daily Fare

No one article of food enters so largely into our daily fare as Bread. Nowhere has scientific knowledge contributed more vitally to food perfection than in HOLSUM Bread. How Science works hand in hand with human skill to produce "the perfect balanced ration" was told in our recent newspaper series, "The History of Modern Bread Making."

When Bread Making Was an Art

The old-fashioned cook book defined bread-making as an "art." Most women's experience seemed to prove that definition correct. Artistically considered, a batch of dough was temperamental stuff. The same recipe, dutifully followed, produced varying grades of bread. Sometimes the result was light, fine, deliciously flavored loaves. At other times, they were small, soggy, and of poor texture.

Today Bread Making Is a Science

Today bread-making is recognized as an exact science. Chemists in well-equipped laboratories have, through years of experimentation, successfully worked out the problems of producing bread of the highest possible food value, delicious flavor and fine texture. The result of their work is HOLSUM Bread.

Nothing Left to Chance

In the making of HOLSUM Bread nothing is left to chance. Science and human skill combine to produce a loaf of highest attainable goodness—the result of skillful blending of best materials, mixed, moulded and baked by modern methods. HOLSUM Bread is made by machinery, scrubbed clean every day. HOLSUM Bakery has a L. A. Health Department rating of 98% for cleanliness and sanitation. Each step in the making of HOLSUM Bread, from selection of the flour to the wrapping of the loaf, has been scientifically worked out to give you bread of Supreme Quality, Fine Flavor and Maximum Food Value. That is why today

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
The Associated Press is a corporation organized for the purpose of publishing news and other information for the benefit of the public.

STICKS WELL.
Dr. Furtus is beginning his second year as President of the republic of Panama. He has been unusually well for the feverish season. Indeed, he sticks as well as the well-known plaster after which he is named.

THE BIG DOINGS.
Well, the voters have had their last chance to register for the doings in November. If they vote as they register the editor of the Los Angeles Times will have a plurality of 200,000 in the glorious State of California.

OLD TIMES.
At the age of 85 years a pioneer announces that eating egg shells and dry bread crusts has kept his stomach and teeth in good condition. It is only a man who can eat shells and crusts who can afford to live 85 years, anyhow.

LOST LEADER.
The death of Senator W. Murray Crane removes a valued counselor from the Republican camp. He didn't bear much resemblance to big Boies Penrose in a physical way, but he wore a full-fledged hat and it covered the brain of a field marshal.

NONE SO BLIND.
According to the report of the Industrial Accident Commission there have been more than 50,000 eye injuries to workers in this country since 1915. That must be why so many people couldn't see anything crooked about the world's series of last year.

LIZON BOOING.
The American Chamber of Commerce at Manila has voted to keep and serve liquor at its quarters. This must be out of compliment to Congressman Charles H. Randall, who was a recent visitor and indicated a purpose to make the Philippines as dry as one of his speeches.

BUCKEY LEAGUES.
Last year Cincinnati won the baseball championship. This year Cleveland has the American League pennant. Likewise, this year Ohio is the home of the three leading Presidential candidates. There's Cox, who stands for the League of Nations "as is," and Senator Harding who wants it as it should be. Whatever way you look at it and whatever League you discuss, Ohio is on the front seat. Seems as if Ohio ought to have a league of its own and let the rest of the world go by.

RENTLESS FEELING.
Several strikes have been arranged in various industries to be staged during or immediately after the holidays. A lot of union workmen have been busy for several months and are getting nervous about it. They have got to have some excuse for quitting and so figure on demanding another 50 per cent increase in wages. In the face of falling prices the industries cannot meet a further labor cost and there will naturally be a strike. The men will stay out until the families begin to complain and then they will walk for their old jobs. Some of them will get them, but the shiftless workmen and the disturbers will be informed that the open-shop principle has been established and that only men who really care for their jobs will have them.

BUSINESS PICKS UP.
The Judge of the Police Court in Portland complains because there were over a hundred more arrests in that city for drunkenness last month than there were in September, 1919. "Where do they get it?" he asks in impassioned accents. And the man in the street makes the same query, though possibly from a different motive. The Judge figures that a lot of them make grape juice and cider, and then take them along through ferocious fumes until they are able to register the combined kick of nine thousand hawking nose sunning themselves on the Pacific Slope. There is no State in the Union that has drawn so evenly and in such numbers from its sisterhood as California. They have come here from Alaska and Alabama in much the same proportion, but the percentage of residents of foreign birth is much less than in most States. California comes nearer being 100 per cent American than almost any other State in the Union.

THE PRESIDENT'S LATEST.
President Wilson has broken from the restraint imposed upon him by Democratic leaders since the San Francisco convention and rubbed to the support of his "solemn referendum." He is going to handle the referendum, while Murphy and Taggart, who are practical men, round up the voters and hand them into Democratic corral. The speaking tour of Gov. Cox is over and he is to stand back and wait with dignified expectancy the result of the campaign. Cox got the idea that the press of the country was engaged in a conspiracy of silence against him; but it is evidently the opinion of the Democratic leaders that he talked not wisely but too much.

Cox saw the result of the "solemn referendum" in Maine and he has been hedging ever since. Last Friday morning the Associated Press reported him as saying that, if elected, he would sit down with the members of the Senate and work out a compromise on reservations that would secure the ratification of the peace treaty. That was the last straw. If the covenant in its original form was to be abandoned, what would become of the referendum?

So the President has restated the issue. It must be the treaty with Article X or we shall continue in a state of war with Germany and Austria until the end of time. In his appeal to "my fellow-countrymen" the President says:

You have been grossly misled with regard to the treaty, and particularly with regard to the proposed character of the League of Nations, by those who have assumed the serious responsibility of opposing it. They have done so to far that those who have spent their lives, as I have spent my life, . . . must stand amazed at the gross ignorance and impudent audacity which has led them to invent an "Americanism" of their own, which has no foundation whatever in any of the authentic traditions of the government.

And who are the men whose "gross ignorance and impudent audacity" have served to mislead the American people concerning the obligations of the covenant of the League? They are Elihu Root, William Howard Taft, Charles Evans Hughes, William Jennings Bryan, Herbert Hoover and Edward M. House, men to whom such terms as "impudent" and "ignorant" are not commonly applied. If we were to grant that partisanship was stronger than patriotism in the hearts of the first three, how are we going to explain the attitude of the others? The President personally selected Mr. Root to head the mission to Russia. He chose Mr. Hughes to investigate the aircraft scandal growing out of Democratic inefficiency. He selected Mr. Bryan for his first Secretary of State. He appointed Mr. Hoover as Federal Food Administrator. He selected Mr. House as his personal and secret representative and gave him authority even over ambassadors. Yet he now tells us that these men are all possessed of "gross ignorance and impudent audacity."

If by his own admission the President misjudges men so ill, is it not possible that he has misunderstood the effect of some of the things that were written into the covenant of the League of Nations? The President has given us but a brief time to readjust our opinions concerning the men we have been wont to regard as leading Americans. Former President Roosevelt was looked upon as one of the greatest judges of character the country has produced. Yet Mr. Roosevelt misjudged Mr. Root so badly that he made him Secretary of State and Taft so utterly that he made him President. The associates of President Wilson in drafting the peace treaty also misjudged Mr. Root when they selected him as the leading exponent of international law in America. Mr. Wilson's own party misjudged Bryan so badly that they nominated him three times for the Presidency. Herbert Hoover went through the whole war without being exposed; he fooled the President first and then the rest of us. And Col. House! That's the "most unkindest cut of all."

President Wilson discovered him, and the country and the world accepted him on the President's endorsement. But he seems to have been possessed with hereditary instincts compelling him to "gross ignorance and impudent audacity" and general cunningness. It is as though Croesus's man Friday had rewarded the many kindnesses shown him by his master by biting him in the leg. Col. House has recently written that the League of Nations covenant was handled poorly at Paris and that the main part of the work will have to be done all over again. Which shall it be, "Bit to Brute" or "Pay as You Go"?

One can easily visualize Democracy watching the line of American statesmen parading down the street and crying with rapture, "All of them are out of step but my Woody!"

Gov. Cox seems to have been overlooked in the new deal; and, as for the Democratic party, the President does not even dignify it with honorable mention. It is the Wilson party which is the "Whitewashed" party to keep scrupulously out of the League. The President is unkind. In view of the recent utterance of Cox, saying he would sit down with the Senators and compromise on reservations, and of the assertion of Harding that he would promptly proceed to negotiate an amended covenant, it isn't plain just how we are going to vote to assure that "solemn referendum." With the best intent in the world people can't very well vote for things that are not on the ballot.

Two years ago the President told us to vote only for Democrats. That at least was specific and we knew how to copper his bet. But, in his latest appeal, he keeps the word Democrat, as well as all reference to Cox, out of the article. Does he think we will be fooled into voting for a Democrat in spite of ourselves? Somehow that sounds like a secret diplomacy than of "open covenants openly arrived at."

As far as the argument advanced in favor of Article X, it consists chiefly in asserting that all the people who differ with the President about it are wrong. The best we can make out of it, from what the President says, is that it binds us to take part in any war declared by the League Council. But the rope is a bit rotten and we could easily break loose, or, to put it another way, it is a promissory note without collateral security.

Viewing the situation in all candor, no two persons who have studied Article X have agreed on their interpretation of it; and a text that lends itself to such diverse interpretations is certainly unsuited for an international treaty. If no two American statesmen can agree, how would it be possible for representatives of different na-

CLEVELAND MEETS BROOKLYN TODAY IN OPENING WORLD'S SERIES CLASH.

WEATHER READY FOR THE FIRST GAME OF SERIES.

Weather Promised for Opening Clash Between Indians and Dodgers for Baseball's Highest Honors.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The Brooklyn Nationals and the Cleveland Indians open their world series battle for the 1920 championship at Ebbets Field tomorrow afternoon, weather permitting.
The preliminary announcement of fair weather with moderate winds, but a fairly heavy rainstorm came at 9 o'clock tonight. The weather men said the storm was due to low atmospheric pressure and that it would be clear, although somewhat cooler, tomorrow for the opening game.

The playing field of the Brooklyn park has been mowed for the first time in several years, and every reserved seat disposed of, while thousands of fans are engaged tonight in a fruitless hunt for spectators or a ticket for at least one game.
The Brooklyn players, winners of the National League pennant, are today preparing to enter the fray in the Cleveland park, which is due in this city early tomorrow afternoon.

Manager Robinson and his team are confident of their ability to win the series. Robinson said the opinion that the Indians were better than the Cleveland team was a mistake. He said the Indians were a team of gamblers and that they were not a team of winners. He said the Indians were a team of gamblers and that they were not a team of winners.

ALL SEATS GONE.
The reserved seats at the Brooklyn park have been sold for the series. The standard, however, of the American League are expected to be in charge of the press stands at noon today more than at any time in the series.

THINK MAIL COULD ANNEX WORLD TITLE
Cleveland Fans Strong for Coast Pitcher; Series Has a Unique Appearance.

BY I. E. SANBORN.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—What promises to be the most unique world's series in recent years is scheduled to begin tomorrow afternoon on Ebbets Field, between the Indians from Ohio, invaders, and the Dodgers of Brooklyn borough, defenders.

It is unique for one thing because the Cleveland Indians, who are the defending champions, are playing in their home park, Ebbets Field, for the first time in the series. The Indians are the only team in the series that is playing in their home park.

DISREGARDED.
Hitherto it has been considered highly essential to the visiting team to arrive in the vicinity of the battle line in time to get at least one night's sleep in stationary beds. As cheaply as the White Sox held the beds last fall, they did not disregard that precedent. In view of the fact the Indians clinched the American League pennant on Saturday, it would have been feasible for Manager Speaker to bring all his regulars to Gotham well in advance of the opening game and still give them a day at home, between Detroit and Brooklyn, as they desired.

Exposition Park Live Stock Show Has Fine Card.

BY ED O'MALLEY.
The Los Angeles Live Stock Show drew a dandy crowd to Exposition Park yesterday and every one present got an eye full and a heart full in the various events scheduled.

JOYOUS THROB.
True lovers of the bangtail felt the joyous throb in the second event, the Jonathan Club purse, at 1:14 morning Handicapper Hayman sent a field of five pretty speedy steppers to the post.

DASHES TO FRONT.
To an excellent start, Junia dashed to the front, but was immediately joined by Freedom. The two ran as one horse to the final sixteenth, where Junia, against the inside rail, dogged it and sprang out.

EASILY BEST.
Sir John, Jr., was easily the best in the race, a 4-furlong dash. He set his own pace throughout and just about spreadeagled his lead soon after the start.

Seen under a powerful magnifying glass an unstopped razor blade looks like a saw edge

"Stropping" keeps the tiny teeth of the blade in perfect alignment—provides a smooth, keen edge for every shave

No pull, no scrape—a fine, keen edge for every shave

No skill necessary

No skill in stropping is needed to renew the fine keen edge of the AutoStrop Razor blade. Just slip the strop through the razor head and pass the razor back and forth along the strop. You don't have to take the razor apart nor even remove the blade.

Like the leaf of a book

The AutoStrop Razor blade opens for cleaning like the leaf of a book. To clean, simply, rinse and dry. No parts to unscrew—nothing to take apart and reassemble. The same lever that releases the blade also adjusts it for close, medium or light shaving.

ONLY a dulled or dulling razor blade pulls and scrapes. If your razor drags, if it irritates the skin, you can be sure of one thing—you are using a blade that has lost its new, sharp edge.

Do you know why shaving dulls a razor edge so quickly? Look at any razor blade under a microscope and you will see hundreds of tiny saw teeth, invisible to the naked eye. When these teeth are in perfect alignment the blade is sharp. But during the very first shave your beard bends these tiny teeth out of line—makes them irregular.

These irregular teeth catch in your beard, pull on the hair follicles, and—if you bear down hard to make the blade cut through—scrape the skin. That's what makes shaving so annoying, so unpleasant.

With most safety razors there is no way to smooth the minute teeth back into line. The original smooth, fine edge of the blade grows rougher with every shave. Too many men accept the pull and scrape of fast dulling blades as inevitable.

Yet the discomfort of a blade that pulls and scrapes can be eliminated if you use the AutoStrop Razor—the only safety razor that strokes its own blades.

Built right into the frame of the AutoStrop Razor is a remarkable self-stropping device, simple and efficient, which renews the fine, keen edge of the AutoStrop blade day after day.

A safety razor and stropping device combined

You don't have to take the razor apart nor even remove the blade. Insert the strop through the razor head, and slide the razor to and fro along the strop. The blade turns over and alaps down on the strop at the end of each stroke just as the blade of a straight razor does in the hands of a skilful barber. In 10 seconds you have a new, sharp shaving edge! 500 comfortable shaves are guaranteed from each dozen AutoStrop blades!

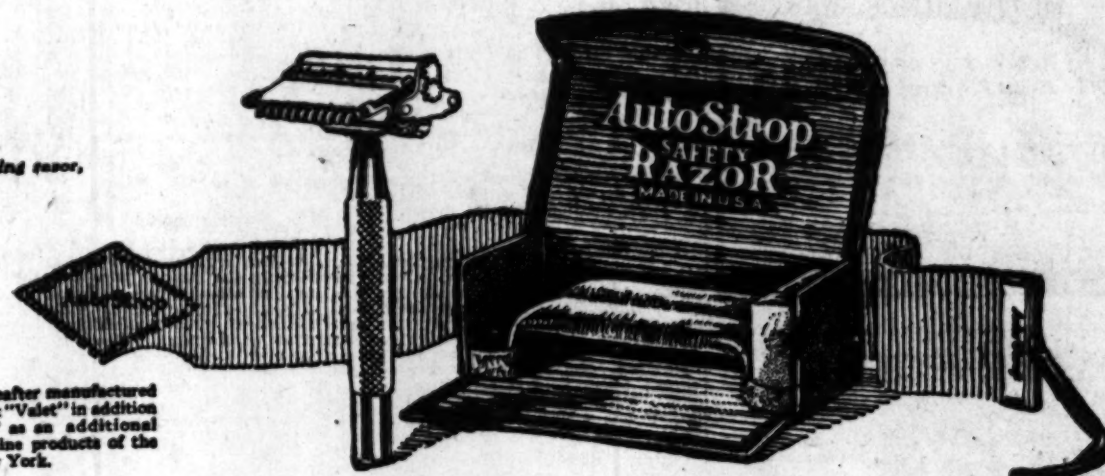

For cleaning, the blade of the AutoStrop Razor opens like the leaf of a book. Rinse and dry—that's all there is to it. The same lever that releases the blade also adjusts it for close, medium or light shaving.

In fact the whole AutoStrop Razor is so simple, so efficiently built that it sharpens, shaves and cleans without taking the razor apart or removing the blade. No other safety razor offers this advantage.

Don't put up any longer with the pull and scrape of unstropped blades. Begin tomorrow to get the comfort of a new, sharp shaving edge every morning. Ask your dealer about the AutoStrop Razor trial plan.

Standard set consists of:
silver-plated, self-stropping razor,
selected leather strop,
twelve blades,
all in neat leather case

On razors, strops, blades, etc., hereafter manufactured by us we shall apply the trademark "AutoStrop" in addition to the trade mark "AutoStrop" as an additional indication that they are the genuine products of the AutoStrop Safety Razor Co., New York.

FLASHES. A "DAPHNE" OF THE CINEMA

"SCANDALS" PLEASE. In Dwan Picture at the Kinema.

"SCANDALS" PLEASE.

By Grace Kingsley.

Peachy girls, live music, good comedy.

Maudie Adams will have to learn to shimmy and Robert Edeson to shake a gully gaiter if they're going to keep up with what this town likes. A "Mamma's Affair" or "Clarence" or a "Tea For Three" can come here and die, but not a revue with a lot of undressed chorus girls.

"Scandals of 1919" packed 'em at the Mason last night. And with more or less reason, of which a pip pin chorus in the foreground. But the rule of the musical revue nowadays seems to be the more lines of the girls, the fewer of the authors. The only book the Johns care about is the little red book.

"Scandals of 1919" has some capital songs, notably "Those Beautiful Girls" and others, warbled by Duke Rogers. Rogers, in blackface, was the big bit of the show, with his trick guitar and his chubby way of kidding the audience about the rest of the performance.

Bianche Boone is a fetching girl with a ditto voice, and Grace Cameron has some good character business.

The remainder of the cast was adequate.

The high spots are rather like cases. The burlesque on the bedroom drama was capital, the three-minute limit cafe scene struck a popular chord, and the peacock song was effective. The credit sounds like a who's who of Tin Pan Alley, Book and Lyrics are by Arthur Jackson and George Whiting, while Richard Whiting, Herbert Spencer and Al Humble furnished the music. George "Walrus" supplied the staging, and Providence gave us the chorus.

That chorus is a whole orchard of peaches, with many a quince. And they grabbed 'em out of the kindergarten, too.

The costumes are lovely, and the face chart the house was an applause should be sufficient evidence that it liked the show.

The production won't set even the Los Angeles River on fire, but it's warm enough to please most theatergoers, and to furnish a pleasurable glow to everybody.

ROGERS APPLY CAST

IN "OLD HUTCH" FILM.

Any old time Will Rogers's name is hung out in front of the California, that theater is sure to pack 'em in. And "Old Hutch," from Garret Smith's story, rings the gong. For whimsical ingenuity of plot, as well as for supplying a character of the uncanny humor and drooping humanness, for which Rogers is famous, "Old Hutch" has never been eclipsed. I'm sure.

Mark Twain once had a line concerning lazy southerners, saying that "chills were provided by an all-wise providence to permit lazy people to take exercise without exertion." You know the Mississippi River bump type.

While "Hutch" didn't have any chills, he thought he might have to work, you get the type he was from Twain's description.

As the lazy man who let his wife take in washing and his kids go half starved, Rogers is entertaining as usual. In his own way, he is delightfully to the opportunities later offered him when, having discovered a robbery case of $10,000 in $1000 notes, which he hides, he decides he can't spend the money because he'll be suspected, and all he'll have to go to work to pretend he earned it.

"I wouldn't go to work for much less than $10,000 anyhow," he comments.

In the long run, he loses the cache, but he has a bit of property of his, besides the fact that he has bought up for $10,000. And he becomes a self-respecting citizen.

There are many striking bits of action, and the subtitles are capital. Mary Alden as the drudging wife of Hutch brings to the role her genius for dramatic detail in character roles. In addition to that, she is all of scenes of comedy which permits the player to reflect the inherent humor of action by a quiet sort of reaction put over merely through thought and facial expression.

Priscilla Bonner has a small part, which, as usual, this very clever young player makes stand out through sympathetic and keenly intelligent handling. Tully Marshall plays another of those gosh-darned miners in his usual masterly fashion. Byron Munaga is boyishly nice as the juvenile lover, and Nick Gogley plays Hiram Joy messily, with leanness and Yves Trefoua portraying the three children of Hutch acceptably.

Clarence Badger is to be complimented on having staged very effectively a most entertaining story. Carl D. Elinor's score adds much to the program.

Another of Booth Tarkington's Edgar stories, directed by E. Mason Hopper, is also great fun. I think it is the best of the series so far. It is called "Edgar's Sunday Courtship," as usual, it is Edgar's dreams which are the funniest part of the story. Especially amusing are the scenes with the giant which Hopper is well played by Fred Peters. Great boy actor that Johnny Jones, reacting sensitively to all calls for both comedy and pathos.

Prologue and musical features are all up to the high California standard.

Hippodrome.

A blackface comedy offering presented by Fagg and White, called "Bits of Africanology," heads the Hippodrome bill. Their act is easily the hit of the show, although they are closely followed for laughing honors by Murray and Lane in "Hubby's Holiday," a comedy sketch taken from every day life. The complications that arise when hubby has a day off and tries to help wife clean house, cause laughter.

Eileen and Betty have class and cleverness in a song and dance turn that pleases. Louis Leo performs in madcap and is thrilling and amusing. The Four Ginger Snaps close the show in a novel song and dance revue.

Clarence Swanson appears in the feature photoplay, "Station Content," an entertaining story of railroad life.

TO HAVE BANQUET.

"BEHOLD MY WIFE."

PARKER STORY IN ATTRACTIVE FILM VERSION.

By Edwin Schallert.

In a fit of pique at his family, the scion of an aristocratic English house marries an Indian girl in Canada. He sends her home to his people to revenge himself for a supposed wrong. The primitive culture by degrees becomes a woman of culture and social distinction; her husband meanwhile becomes an outcast even in his wild.

Here in brief outline we have the plot material of "Behold My Wife," the story by Sir Gilbert Parker, upon which is based "Behold My Wife," the Famous Players-Lasky picture, directed by George MelloDun, which is proving a sensational study in romance and redemption told with a direct force that reflects credit on its director and its people.

"Behold My Wife" may not be one of the great pictures, but it is very fine in its thought and its theme. The probabilities are that the story never really happened. But that is no sign it could not. And the growth of a mind and a soul, whether in life or in film, always finds a sympathetic audience. There is a spiritual development in the character of Lail which gives to this picture a high distinction and fitness.

There are many light, humorous bits in the story, which have both novelty and humanness—the lessons in etiquette which the half-breed girl learns, the fight between the redoubtable husband and his protector, all in fun, over the question of drink. Most of all it is the bigness of the characters that lends the picture its greater meaning. One must find fault here, however, with the fact that they are all together logical in their mobbery and their generosity.

Mabel Julienne Scott has the role of Lail, the half-breed heroine. It is really a starring role. The part opens up a new vista on Miss Scott's capabilities since her return to the screen. Her interpretation is intelligently phrased, although there are some lapses in the continuity of the impression she creates. Her dramatic scenes are forcible.

Elliott Dexter furnishes a fine idea in the portrayal of Richard Armour, the brother who takes the education of the Indian girl in hand. Milton Silla exhibits a wide range of feeling, and variety in his changes of make-up. Any Forest with her usual aplomb, brings to the picture a comparatively small part with many shades of meaning. Winter Hall, Helen Dunbar, F. R. Butler are others in the cast.

Not an entirely believable story for the American audience, but a very captivating one, it is attractively embodied in "Behold My Wife."

The prologue is enriched with the color of the west, and introduces some diverting song numbers. Adelle Immerman, pianist, and Grace Immerman, dancer, entertain in a pretty, voluble number.

ORPHEUM ACTS SHOW

MUCH PEP AND CLASS.

It's a good bill, with a few weak spots, at the Orpheum this week. Emma Haig, the dancer, who puts the buoy in buoyant, is headlining with a great variety of songs, named Richard Keene and Mildred Brown as companions. Keene is very youthful looking, but dances as if he'd done it since he could walk. He and Miss Haig are a wonderful team. Mildred Brown, in a coquette's mood, sings a song that is a long time, and with the other boy imitating him singing, put the act up in the hit class.

Of course, when Jackie and Billie, two parrots, are billed as "talking and talking birds," you've got nothing to judge from as to the

MIX IN "UNTAMED"

PACKS SYMPHONY.

Entirely untamed and therefore entirely to the liking of the Tom Mix fans, is "The Untamed," which packed the Symphony even on blue Monday.

"The Untamed" is a bit more than a typical Mix feature. Beside being ingenious, and put over in a style that doesn't leave a dull moment, it has a thread of the precious gold of imagination intertwined.

Tom Mix is an untamed son of the desert, and his horse and dog are killers. Tom is known as "Whitling Dan," an there's an eerie, Fosh-like touch to the manner in which, calmly whistling, he stalks the man who has tried to kill him, keeping on his trail and finally wearing the villain's nerves out with the unrelenting, weird sound, sometimes near, sometimes far, but always to be heard as the desperado treks through the forest and desert.

Finally in desperation the villain pauses, unable to endure the unearthly stalking any longer, and faces about, offering to encounter his foe face to face.

Still whistling, Mix meets him in duel and kills him.

Pauline Starke, George Siegemann and the others do good work.

Emmitt Flynn did a fine job as director.

A very clever Sunshine comedy shows a lot of funny new gags and cleans up on laughter; an educational film tells the history of San Antonio, Tex., a Gaumont-Times news weekly has some really interesting bits of news, and a Gumps comedy completes an all around good bill.

COMELY COMEDY

AT THE MAJESTIC.

If the servant problem could only be solved in as cheerful a way as is the marriage problem in "Perkins," the current attraction at the Majestic, everything would be sweetness and light along domestic row, or "Perkins" if you prefer the "ouch" sound.

The two problems apparently have something in common, according to the comedy in three acts by Douglas Murray. The widow, with whose fortunes we are concerned, becomes a servant so that she may the better decide whether she wants to be a wife. She makes such a good servant that her unknown employer concludes that she must be engaged her for life, and the upshot of it all is that she does. Moreover, the whole thing happens in staid England, where such things aren't generally "done."

The result of the plot and counterplots, deceptions and counter-deceptions in "Perkins"—which, by the way, derives its name from the sobriquet which Mrs. Calhorne, the widow, temporarily assumes—is a very comely and graceful light comedy, ideally suited to the talents of Edward Everett Horton and Evelyn Varden, with Franklin Pangborn also delightfully cast as an agreeable young know-nothing of a sentimental turn of mind.

Mr. Horton has that deft touch so remarkably attuned to the fantasy of humor, and he manifests his talent in a superior manner in this play. Miss Varden acts her role with keen and even sparkling intelligence.

Sara Sothorn is a bright bit as the maid, and Alice Elliott captures the favor of the audience by her gay portrayal of the young girl of the wilds of Canada. Frederick Kerby does a brusque stage uncle in a manner to win several bursts of laughter, while Mrs. Tyrone Power, Marie Curtis and Louise Dunley also are excellent.

Personally, I shall be glad to see the Majestic company away from a change. They have billed "John Ferguson" as the next attraction, with Frank Keenan and Helen Freeman appearing for a special engagement. "Perkins" will be a good filler-in comedy, until then.

STOCK JUDGES BEGIN AWARDS.

terriers, Pekingese, Pomeranians, black and tan terriers, Scotch terriers, Irish terriers, fox terriers, Alsatians, police dogs, sheep dogs, Dalmatians, chows and shepherds all came in for their full meed of admiration from the crowd which witnessed the show.

HORSES WIN APPLAUSE.

The high-stepping, fancy-gaited animals exhibited in the horse show won salutes of applause and brought the crowd to its feet on numerous occasions. The competition was exceedingly close and the judges had to ponder their decisions because of the keen rivalry.

In the lightweight hunters class, Captain, entered by the Hollywood Riding School, romped away with first honors. Sea Gull, from the same stable, won second money, while The Tank, owned by Hilda McCormick, and Antoinette, entered by Thomas Madsen, finished third and fourth, respectively.

Tarna Denmark, owned by R. L. English, topped all comers in the class for roadsters, single. Second prize went to Barbara D., entered by W. G. Durkee, third was won by Cochie, from the San Vicente Rancho, and fourth to Colorado River Dare, owned by H. S. Burnham.

The three-gaited saddle horses were shown the way home by Constance, owned by Maude Banks Haselstein, entered by the Beverly Hills Riding School, was a close second, while Playmate, from the Hollywood Riding School, took third place, and Tumble In, owned by Mathieson was fourth.

It required some time for the judges to pick the winner from among the prancers in the five-gaited combination class, but the blue ribbon finally went to a horse owned by F. W. Mathieson. Second money was awarded King Hamilton, entered by W. Madsen, third to Betty Dare, shown by the San Vicente Rancho, and fourth by Celia, from the same stable.

HEAVIES HAVE INNING.

Easton and Ward of Diablo were awarded $60 as first prize for the best heavy-draft four-in-hand. Second money in this class was given down by Mrs. Anita Baldwin of Santa Anita, and third by Merritt-Bowers Co., of Tulsa.

It remained for the jumpers to contribute the big thrill of the afternoon. As each of the well-trained high-jumping animals went over the bars, the crowd arose and voiced its admiration. Nancy Parker, from the San Vicente Rancho, gave a perfect performance in going over the various obstacles of different heights and was awarded the blue ribbon. Second prize in this class went to Shannon King, entered by the Los Angeles Riding Academy, third to Bounder, owned by R. L. English, and fourth to Sea Gull from the Hollywood Riding School.

JEFFRIES GETS DRAVY.

James J. Jeffries, former heavyweight champion pugilist, and Mrs. Anita Baldwin fought out a hot battle in the Holstein-Friesian cattle exhibit. They wound up by dividing honors about evenly. The awards for these cattle were in part as follows:

Peter Macready.

I know I can make as good clothes as any tailor on Earth (better than a lot of them,) and so do my CUSTOMERS. And I know that I can save you from $15 to $30 on your next Suit or Overcoat—and so do my CUSTOMERS. Egotism? NO, SELF CONFIDENCE, and a knowledge of prevailing conditions.

Listen! Here's why I can save you big money on Your Clothes. I lost my lease on Broadway, some time ago, because I could not afford to pay the high rent, so I came over here on Spring Street in this little store, at a low rent, and I can look you STRAIGHT IN THE EYE, without a quiver, when I tell you my prices.

To prove what I say I shall build another 150 Suits—in each one all the personal skill and knowledge I've learned in the many years I've been designing and building "Quality Clothes for Particular Men"—my regular $50 Suits at . . .

Come in and see the splendid line of NEW Fall and Winter Woollens that I am offering. No "cheesnuts"—no old stuff—but a wonderful array of snappy new patterns in Worsteads, Cheviots, Tweeds, Cashmeres and Novelty Weaves, in all the exclusive colorings and shades that well dressed men will wear this Season. And priced so you can buy them without spraining your purse, or your vocabulary, either.

I want you to know ME, whether you want a Suit or Overcoat just now or not. I want the privilege of showing you my wares—you won't find many "bolts" of Woollens—most of my goods are single suit patterns, for my salesroom is small—but I am proud of my little "layout," and neither of us will suffer by getting acquainted.

I can always find time to meet old friends and to greet new ones.
